

How to borrow books from Multilingual library

The Multilingual library is located in Helsinki, in Pasila library. If you live elsewhere in Finland, your local library will order books you want. The service is free of charge.

- Go to the library and ask the library staff for help.
- Take your own Vaski-library card with you.

- Tell the staff what kind of books and in which language you want. *

- The library staff will help you order books or other materials.

- You will receive an email from the library when the books have arrived.

- Get the books from the library.
- Go to the information desk and tell your name.
- The library staff will give you the books.

- Enjoy reading.
- Return the books by the due date.
- Remember to keep good care of the material you have borrowed.

** You can also browse the Multilingual library's materials on the HelMet online library (helmet.fi)

- Choose "Advanced search" and use the asterisk (*) as a truncation mark.
- Write * as the search term.
- In the language menu, search for the language you want, for example Albanian.
- Select Pasila OR Pasila children as the location.
- Press: Search.
